

MPulse 0% Financing Program

MPulse Means Easy Financing

Why pay forever to rent software, when you can own it completely after 36 months? MPulse has created a program that allows you to enjoy the lower upfront costs of software as a service (SaaS), but to own your software outright.

If you've been shopping for maintenance management software, you know that most vendors today want you to rent their "software as a service" (SaaS) solutions. That means you never stop paying. Every year, you have to pay for another annual subscription, but you never really own it. The lower initial costs are attractive, but it's stressful to think you'll be paying rental fees forever. And worse than that, if you stop paying, you'll lose access to the software you've come to depend on.

MPulse believes you should have the option of buying your software, and we've created a program that allows you to do so over 36 months. You'll have better payment terms than most SaaS contracts, and the software will be yours to keep.
